

Simmons' Awards 2016

Harvard Center for Biological Imaging

The Harvard Center for Biological Imaging is pleased to announce the 2016 Simmons' Award call for proposals. This is a funding opportunity for all Harvard graduate students (G2-G5) made possible by generous funding from Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Simmons. The grants are to be used to fund the usage of microscopy systems within the HCBI and will run through the 2016-2017 academic year. Available funding will be divided among the applicants.

Please submit this application form (not to exceed the visible portion of the text boxes) to the HCBI (hcbi_admin@harvard.edu) by Friday August 19th, 2016.

All grantees will be expected to participate in a poster session/symposium in the spring/summer of 2017.

Full name

First name

Last name

Academic information

Department

Lab/PI

Year

G2

G3

G4

G5

E-mail

Phone number

Project Description

Please provide a brief description of the proposed project (do not exceed the visible space of this text box)

Proposed Budget

Please include a proposed budget stating which microscopes you will use and approximately how many hours you will need on each one. The HCBI fee structure can be found here: <http://hcbi.fas.harvard.edu/fees>. Funding is only available to cover hourly charges at the HCBI (no salaries/supplies).

